Board of Governors seeks candidates for appointments to university boards of trustees

TALLAHASSEE – The Trustee Nominating Committee of the Board of Governors is seeking candidates for appointments to the boards of trustees of the 11 institutions of the State University System of Florida.

The Board of Governors will be making 21 appointments to the boards of trustees by January 6, 2010.

“These appointments are vital to the future of the State University System,” said Sheila M. McDevitt, chair of the Board of Governors. “We are looking for individuals who can lead our institutions with skill and good judgment, who can provide a vision of quality and success and who can ensure our universities are accountable for the resources provided by the citizens of this state.”

Each of the 11 state universities has a 13-member Board of Trustees responsible for cost-effective policy, implementing and maintaining high-quality education programs consistent with the university’s mission.

The Board of Governors will make appointments to the board of trustees at each of the following universities:

- University of Florida – two trustee appointments.
- Florida State University – two trustee appointments.
- Florida A&M University – one trustee appointment.
- University of South Florida – two trustee appointments.
- Florida International University – two trustee appointments.
- Florida Atlantic University – two trustee appointments.
- University of West Florida – two trustee appointments.
- University of Central Florida – two trustee appointments.
- University of North Florida – two trustee appointments.
- Florida Gulf Coast University – two trustee appointments.
- New College of Florida – two trustee appointments.
