3.002 Penalties for Failure to Report Child Abuse

(1) Definitions.
(a) For purposes of this regulation, the terms “abuse”, “abandonment”, “neglect”, and “caregiver” are defined as set forth in section 39.01, Florida Statutes.
(b) For purposes of this regulation, the term “administrator” means the following high level personnel who have been assigned the responsibilities of university-wide academic or administrative functions: university president, provost, senior/executive vice presidents, vice presidents, associate vice presidents, associate/vice provosts, deans, chief of police, equal opportunity programs director, intercollegiate athletics director, internal audit director, Title IX coordinator and university compliance officer.
(c) For purposes of this regulation, the term “law enforcement agency” means the campus police department established by each university. The chief of police is the reporting individual for each campus police department.

(2) Reporting Obligation.
(a) Each administrator who receives information from university faculty, staff or other employees of known or suspected child abuse, abandonment, or neglect committed on the property of the university or during an event or function sponsored by the university is required to report such information to the Florida Department of Children and Family Services.
(b) Each law enforcement agency that receives information of known or suspected child abuse, abandonment, or neglect committed on the property of the university or during an event or function sponsored by the university is required to report such information to the Florida Department of Children and Family Services.

(3) Penalties for Failure to Report.
(a) A fine of $1 million shall be assessed against a university in the event the Board determines that a university administrator knowingly and willfully failed to report known or suspected child abuse, abandonment, or neglect to the Florida Department of Children and Family Services as set forth in paragraph (2)(a), or knowingly and willfully prevented another person from doing so.
(b) A fine of $1 million shall be assessed against a university in the event the Board determines that a university law enforcement agency knowingly and willfully failed to report known or suspected child abuse, abandonment, or neglect to the Florida Department of Children and Family Services as set forth in paragraph (2)(b).

(4) Proceedings prior to Determination.
(a) Upon receipt of a credible allegation that a university administrator or law enforcement agency willfully and knowingly failed to report information of known or suspected child abuse, abandonment, or neglect as required by this regulation, the Board of Governors’ Office of Inspector General shall, in conjunction with an external qualified investigative firm, conduct an investigation to determine if sufficient evidence exists to support the allegation and the assessment of a fine as set forth in paragraph (3). The Inspector General shall submit the investigatory findings to the Chair of the university’s Board of Trustees or the Chair’s designee, which shall have twenty (20) working days to submit a written response after receipt of such findings. The Inspector General shall provide a rebuttal, if any, to the university within twenty (20) working days after receipt of the university’s response. The university’s response and the Inspector General’s rebuttal to the response, if any, shall be included in the final investigative report presented to the Board’s Audit and Compliance Committee and the Chair of the university’s Board of Trustees.

(b) The Board’s Audit and Compliance Committee shall make a recommendation to the Board as to any action it deems appropriate based upon the results of the investigation.

(5) Additional Proceedings.

A university may challenge the Board’s determination that there was a knowing and willful failure by a university administrator or law enforcement agency to report known or suspected child abuse, abandonment, or neglect in an administrative hearing conducted pursuant to section 120.57, Florida Statutes, within thirty (30) days of the date of the Board’s determination.
