I. Connecting Undergraduate Arts and Sciences to the World of Work
LEADERSHIP, ENGAGEMENT, AWARENESS, PROFESSIONALISM

LEAP

SNAP DECISIONS
Using the science of first impressions to your advantage.

NOT AS SCARY AS SNAKES
Why public speaking is the 2nd most common fear and how to control it.

UMMM STAND UP STRAIGHT
The secrets behind vocal cues and body language

PROPER REFLECTIONS
Making the right statement with your ears.

ON THE SPOT
How to deal with the Q&A.

DON’T DROP THE BALL
Leaving a great impression and maintaining connections.

2/10 & 4/1
2/18 & 4/7
2/24 & 4/15
3/4 & 4/21
3/10 & 4/29
3/18 & 5/5

All sessions are noon - 12:30 p.m.
Only 30 minutes per session to LEAP to the best you!
Navigating New College

1. Collect Contact Information
   - From Your Faculty Advisor:
     - Name: [Name]
     - Office Location: [Location]
   - From Your RA:
     - Name: [Name]
     - Office: [Office]
   - For Emergencies:
     - Campus Police (941-487-4210).
   - For Less Urgent Assistance:
     - Contact Student Affairs (941-487-4250 in MSC 3)
     - On the RA daily phone (after business hours and on weekends): 941-790-8441.

2. Understand Advising at New College
   - Keep these facts and questions in mind as you talk with your faculty advisor.
   - Be ready to discuss your major.
   - Be ready to discuss your minor.

3. Get Involved Beyond Academics
   - What are your interests and obligations outside of your academic program?
   - Do you have a job or family commitments? Do you want to join (or start) any clubs or organizations? Are you interested in volunteering or other experiential learning opportunities?

New College
The University of Florida
Navigating New College

1. Collect Contact Information
   - FROM YOUR FACULTY ADVISOR:
     - Office Name: [Your Office Name]
     - Office Location: [Office Location]
     - Office Phone: [Office Phone]
     - Email: [Your Email]
   - FROM YOUR RA:
     - Name: [Your Name]
     - Phone: [Your Phone]
     - Email: [Your Email]
   - FOR EMERGENCIES:
     - Contact Campus Police (911 or 813-974-3132)
     - Contact Student Affairs (911 or 813-974-3132)
     - Contact New College Campus Police (911 or 813-974-3132)
   - FOR LESS URGENT ASSISTANCE:
     - Contact Student Affairs (911 or 813-974-3132)
     - Contact Campus Police (911 or 813-974-3132)
     - Contact Health Services (911 or 813-974-3132)

   - How often do you use this Contact Information?
   - How often do you use this Contact Information?
   - How often do you use this Contact Information?
   - How often do you use this Contact Information?
   - How often do you use this Contact Information?

2. Understand Advising at New College
   - What level of mathematics will you need for your major?
   - What level of mathematics will you need for your major?
   - What level of mathematics will you need for your major?
   - What level of mathematics will you need for your major?
   - What level of mathematics will you need for your major?

   - Are you interested in an internship?
   - Are you interested in an internship?
   - Are you interested in an internship?
   - Are you interested in an internship?
   - Are you interested in an internship?

   - Are you interested in studying off-campus?
   - Are you interested in studying off-campus?
   - Are you interested in studying off-campus?
   - Are you interested in studying off-campus?
   - Are you interested in studying off-campus?

3. Get Involved Beyond Academics
   - What are your interests and obligations outside of your academic program?
   - What are your interests and obligations outside of your academic program?
   - What are your interests and obligations outside of your academic program?
   - What are your interests and obligations outside of your academic program?
   - What are your interests and obligations outside of your academic program?

   - Are you interested in volunteer work or internships?
   - Are you interested in volunteer work or internships?
   - Are you interested in volunteer work or internships?
   - Are you interested in volunteer work or internships?
   - Are you interested in volunteer work or internships?

   - Are you interested in participating in clubs or organizations?
   - Are you interested in participating in clubs or organizations?
   - Are you interested in participating in clubs or organizations?
   - Are you interested in participating in clubs or organizations?
   - Are you interested in participating in clubs or organizations?

   - Are you interested in participating in community service or volunteering?
   - Are you interested in participating in community service or volunteering?
   - Are you interested in participating in community service or volunteering?
   - Are you interested in participating in community service or volunteering?
   - Are you interested in participating in community service or volunteering?

Check-List for Advising First-Year Students
Below is a list of topics advisors should be sure to cover with first-year students. The list is general and by no means exhaustive.

- Do advisors have all the contact information, including email, office location, phone number, division phone number?
- Do advisors get in touch with the correct person?
- How often do advisors communicate with their students?
- Do advisors keep a record of their communications?
- Do advisors have a good understanding of the student's major?
- Are there any special events or campus visit opportunities the student should be aware of?
- Are there any other key points advisors should cover?

Check-List for Second-Year Students
Below is a list of topics advisors should be sure to cover with second-year students. The list is general and by no means exhaustive.

- Have the students considered any internships or other experiential opportunities?
- Are the students familiar with the Center for Career Education and Off Campus Studies?
- Have the students attended any career workshops or seminars?
- Have the students explored any other career-related activities?
- Are there any other key points advisors should cover?

Check-List for Third-Year Students
Below is a list of topics advisors should be sure to cover with third-year students. The list is general and by no means exhaustive.

- Have the students completed their course requirements?
- Are there any upcoming exams or assignments the students should be aware of?
- Are there any career-related events or opportunities the students should attend?
- Are there any other key points advisors should cover?

Check-List for Fourth-Year Students
Below is a list of topics advisors should be sure to cover with fourth-year students. The list is general and by no means exhaustive.

- Are the students on track to complete their degree requirements?
- Are there any upcoming exams or assignments the students should be aware of?
- Are there any career-related events or opportunities the students should attend?
- Are there any other key points advisors should cover?

Check-List for Fifth-Year Students
Below is a list of topics advisors should be sure to cover with fifth-year students. The list is general and by no means exhaustive.

- Are the students on track to complete their degree requirements?
- Are there any upcoming exams or assignments the students should be aware of?
- Are there any career-related events or opportunities the students should attend?
- Are there any other key points advisors should cover?
Welcome to our Orientation 2014 Moodle site!

Below you will find a list of important dates, information and new tasks for you to complete this summer and help you prepare for New Student Orientation and classes at New College of Florida.

Visit this Moodle site every couple weeks for updates.

If you have general Orientation questions, please do not hesitate to contact us at (941) 487-4250 or studentaffairs@ncf.edu

We're looking forward to seeing you in August!

7/2/14 update:

Orientation Leaders (OL’s) have received their Orientation group assignments and will contact you soon. Keep checking your emails for NCF updates or visit our Orientation website if you have questions: ncf.edu/orientation. We can't wait to meet you in August!

New College of Florida will be closed on Friday, 7/4/14 for the national holiday. All offices will resume regular business hours on Monday, 7/7/14.

To Do

Over the summer, you will be asked to fill out various forms and keep track of lots of important details! Here's a self-guided check-list to help you stay organized.

As you complete and submit each "to do" item, you can check it off to keep track of your progress.
Welcome to our Orientation 2014

Below you will find a list of important things to complete this summer and help you get ready for New College of Florida.

Visit this Moodle site every couple of days for updates.

If you have general Orientation questions or need 24/7 help, call 1-877-425-4676 or send an email to studentaffairs@ncf.edu.

We’re looking forward to seeing you in August.

7/2/14 Update:

Orientation Leaders (OL’s) have been working hard and will contact you soon. Keep an eye on the Orientation website if you haven’t heard from us yet.

New College of Florida will be closed from 7/3-7/5.

All offices will resume regular hours on 7/6.

To Do

Over the summer, you will be asked to complete various details! Here’s a self-guided checklist to help you:

As you complete and submit each item, check it off below.

Your Online Profile

Read the OASIS guide. It contains important information about New College of Florida’s policies and procedures.

Complete your Housing Application.

Submit your Immunizations Forms.

Submit your FERPA release waiver.

Submit your Parent & Guardian Contact Info.

Submit the SAGE assessment.

Complete the Orientation.

By now, you should have received your copy of 5 Elements of Effective Thinking.

Please take the time over the summer to read it. It presents practical, lively and inspiring ways for you to become more successful through better thinking. Be sure to bring it on campus with you in August!
New Student Orientation (Saturday 8/16 - Sunday 8/25):
Week-long program connects new students with campus resources, academic info sessions, mini-classes & faculty advisors; learn to negotiate contracts (register for classes), attend a variety of social events.

New College of Florida - Register for Orientation

TO DOs BEFORE ORIENTATION:
- Complete a Housing Application
- Submit your Immunizations Forms
- Submit your ERPA release waiver
- Submit your Parent & Guardian Contact Info
- Submit your Financial Aid & Title IV Form
- Complete the SADS assessment
- Register for Orientation

By now, you should've received your copy of 5 Elements of Effective Thinking.
Please take the time over the summer to read it. It presents practical, lively and inspiring ways for you to become more successful through better thinking. Be sure to bring it on campus with you in August!

Some really important things to remember before you come to campus:
- Complete a Housing Application
- Submit your Immunizations Forms
- Submit your ERPA release waiver
- Submit your Parent & Guardian Contact Info
- Submit your Financial Aid & Title IV Form
- Complete the SADS assessment
- Register for Orientation