

Board of Governors

Accountability Measures: Degree Production

Dan Cohen-Vogel, Ph.D.
Director of Institutional Research

January 24, 2007

State University System of Florida

ACADEMIC ACCOUNTABILITY MEASURES

- 1. Graduation Rates
- 2. Degrees Awarded
- 3. Baccalaureate Degree Production in Targeted Areas
- 4. Minority Baccalaureate Production
- 5. Licensure Pass Rates
- 6. Academic Learning Compacts
- 7. World-class Academic and Research Programs

ACADEMIC ACCOUNTABILITY MEASURE II

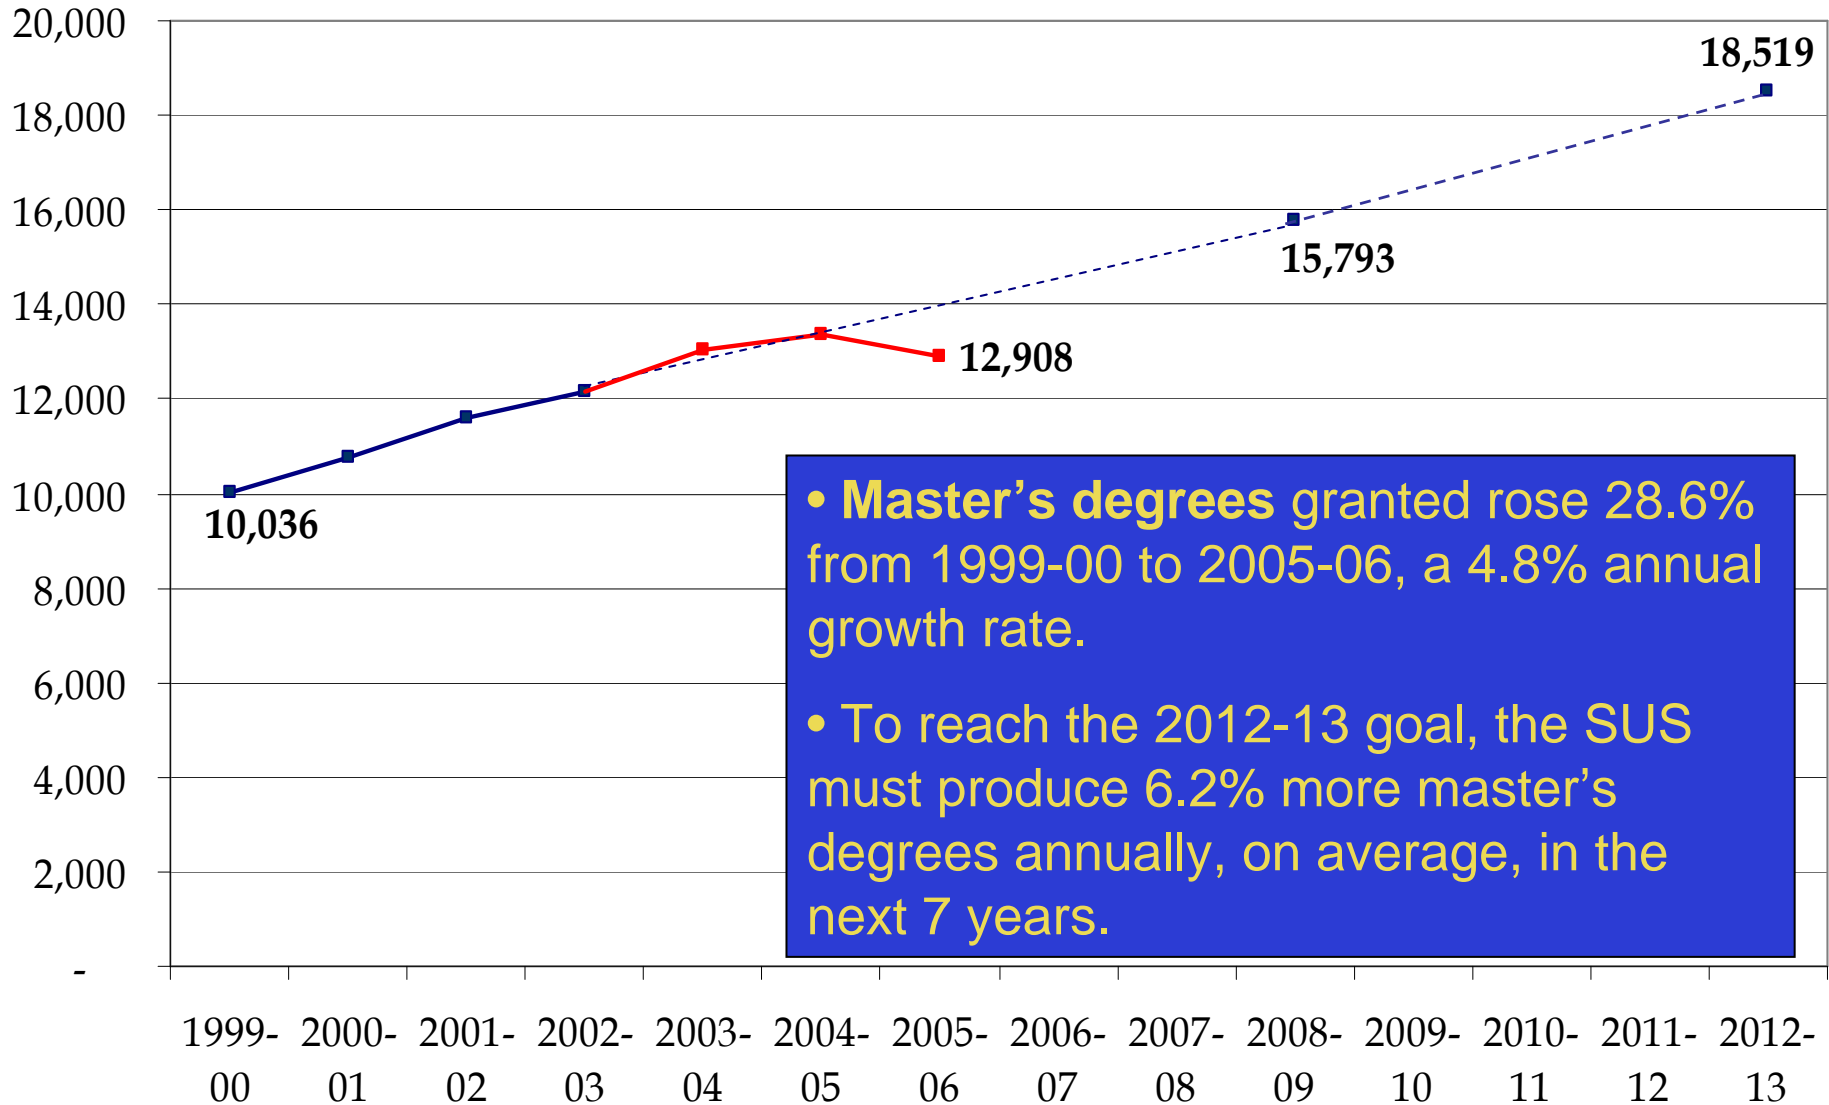

Graduation Rates

- o Baccalaureate
- o Master's
- o Doctoral
- o First Professional

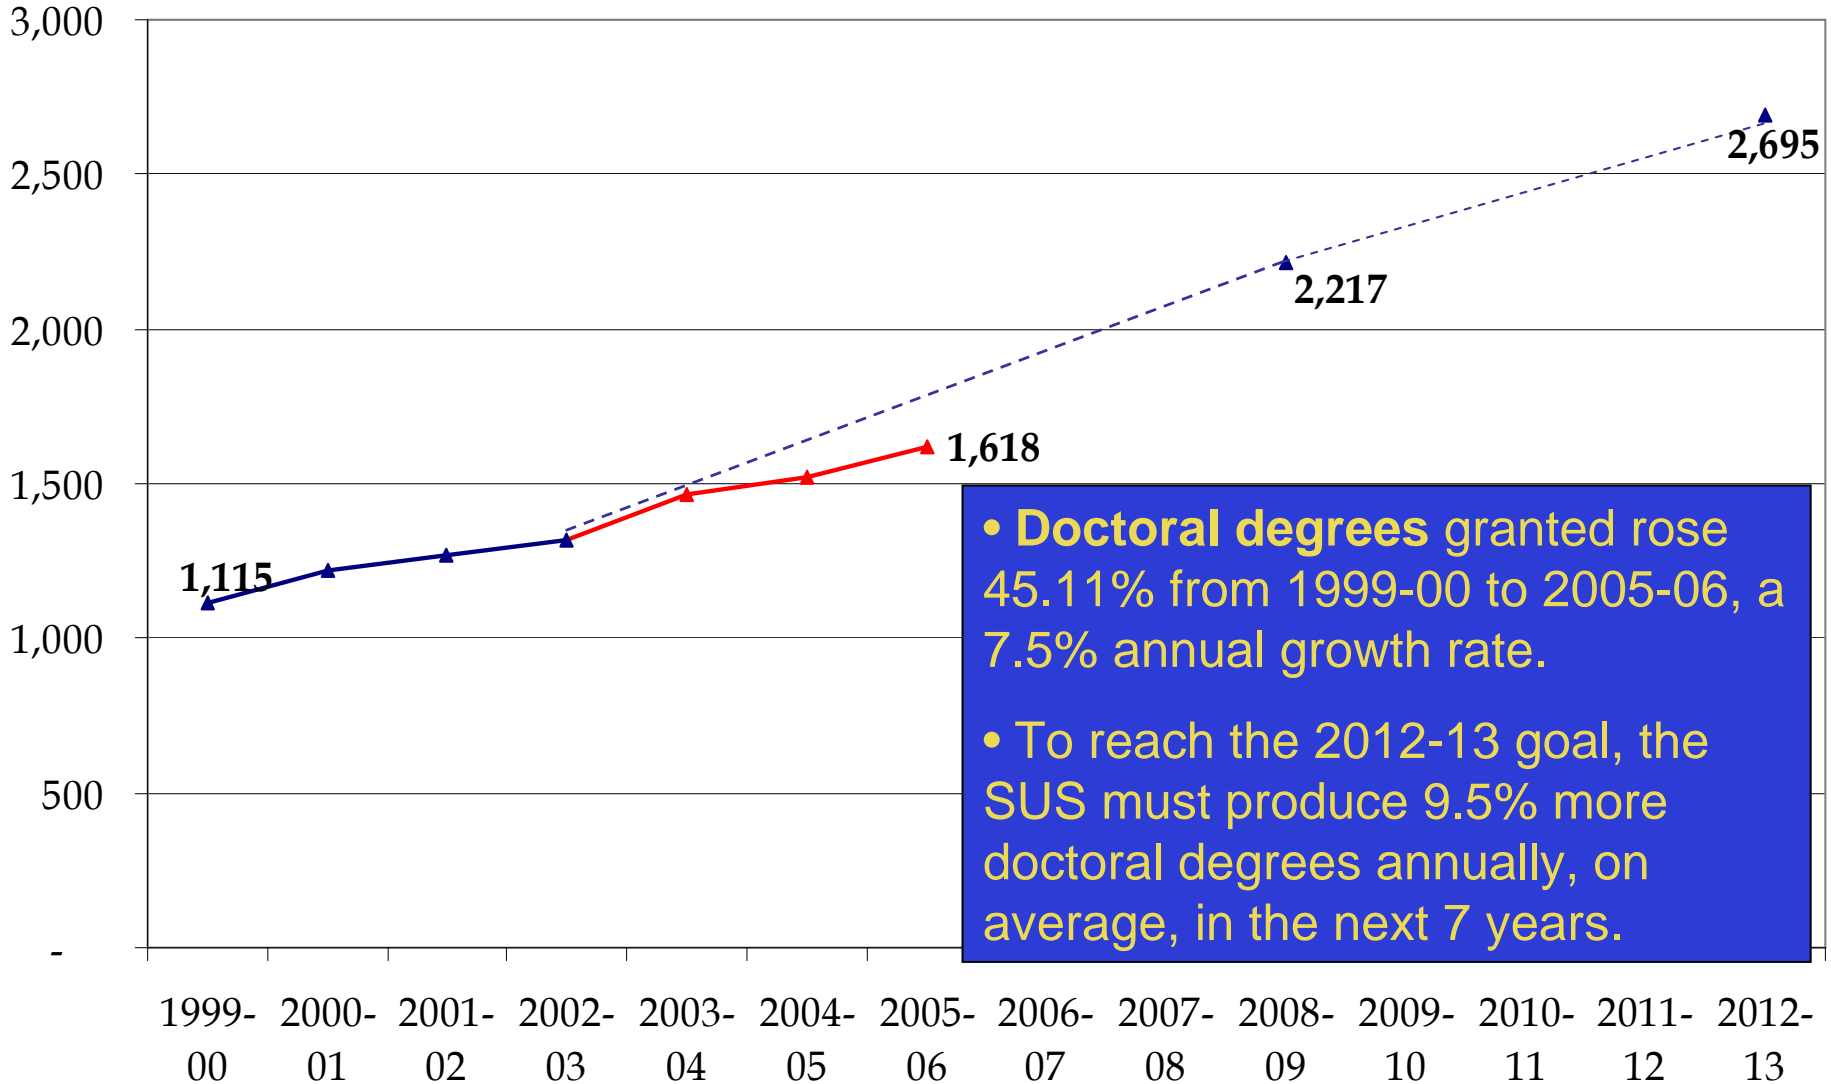

Baccalaureate Degrees Granted State University System Actual and Planned

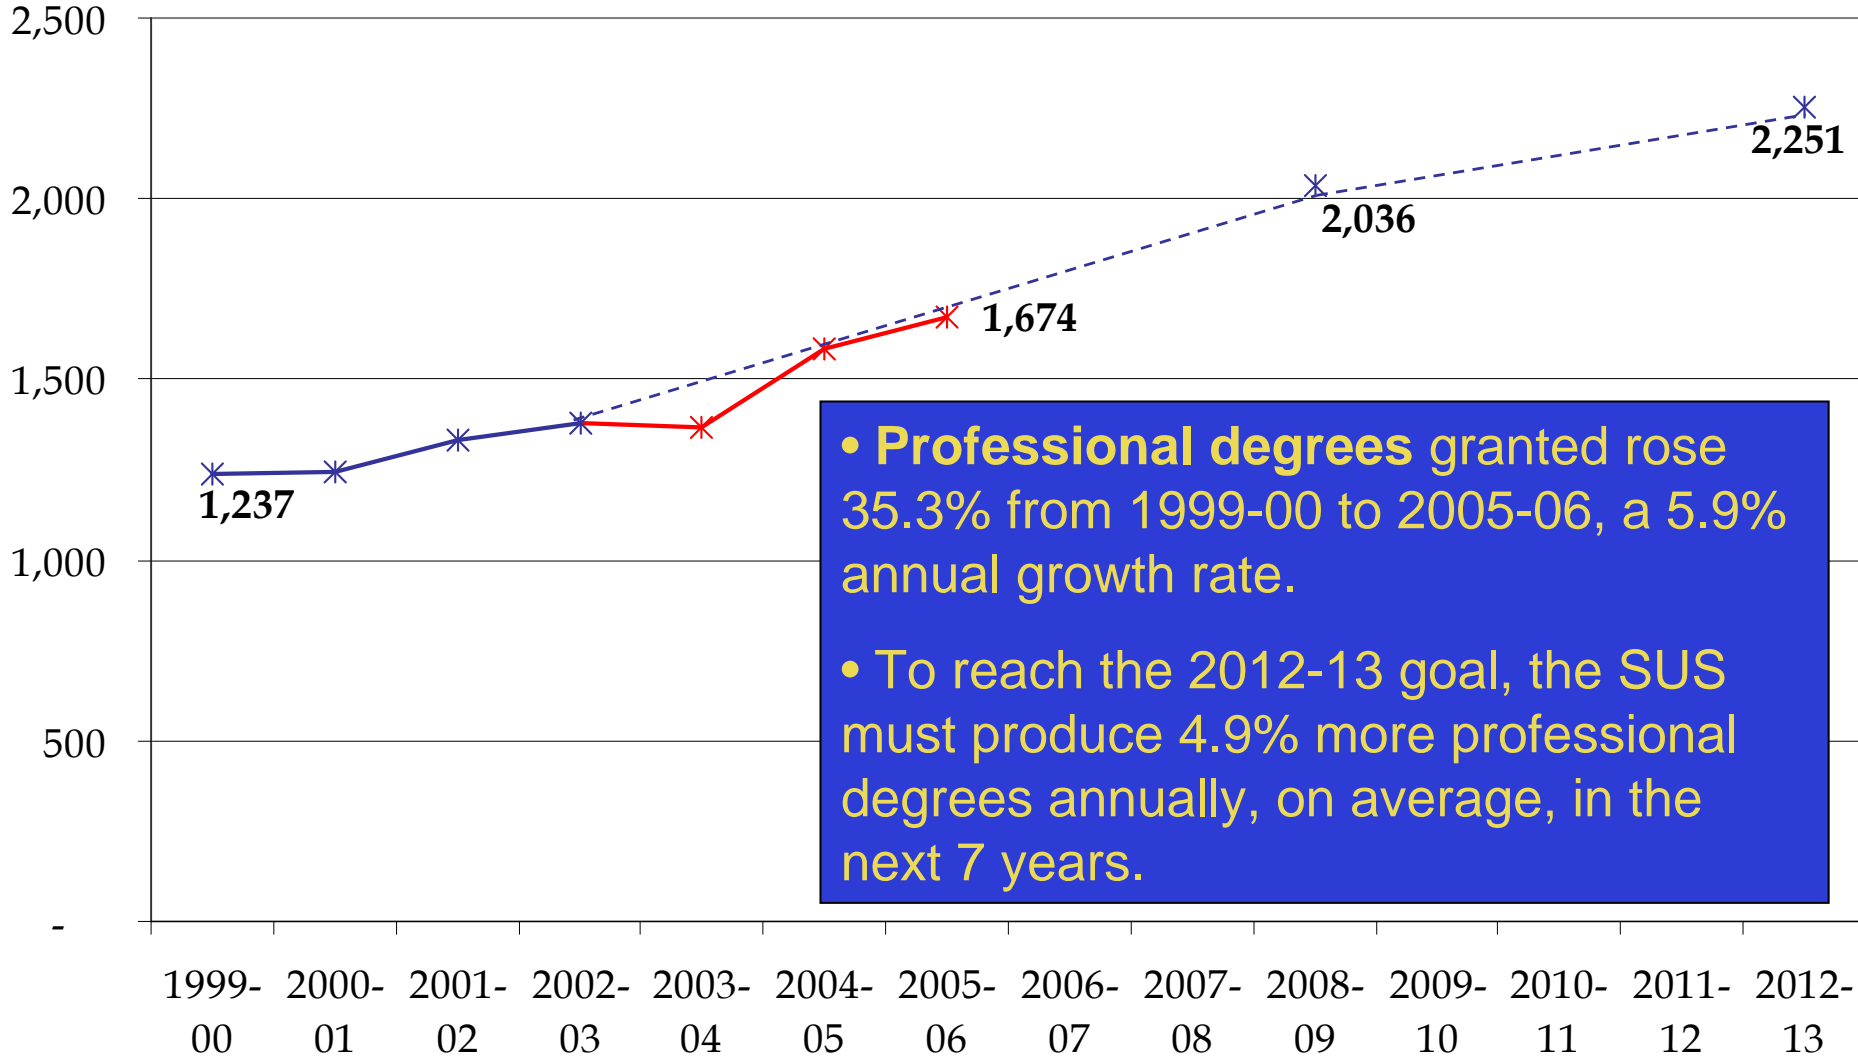

Master's Degrees Granted State University System Actual and Projected

Doctoral Degrees Granted State University System Actual and Projected

First Professional Degrees Granted State University System Actual and Projected

Summary

- SUS is on target, producing undergraduate and graduate degrees to meet the systemwide Strategic Plan goals.
- For more detail on degree production, see : http://www.flbog.org/factbook/pivot_table.asp.
- In the near future, we will be able to show:
 - Degree production in targeted areas: critical needs, high wage, emerging technologies.
 - Additional detail about how these graduates do after graduating.

Questions

Dan Cohen-Vogel, Ph.D.
Director of Institutional Research
Board of Governors
State University System of Florida

(850) 245-9681

Daniel.Cohen-Vogel@flbog.org