

State University System Operating Share of State Resources

The attached information was provided in an email dated June 29, 2005 and summarizes the growth in the State University System (SUS) operating budget resources compared to the overall growth in the State's available operating resources. The document also provides expectations on what the SUS might expect to receive in new State resources for the 2006-2007 fiscal year.