

State University System
Increasing Nursing, Engineering and Teaching Graduates

This attachment provides a summary of the work of three (3) system task forces that met to develop plans for addressing the statewide shortage in nursing, engineering and teaching. The actual documentation submitted by the task forces follows the summary. Further investments in these areas will dramatically increase the number of graduates.