BACKGROUND INFORMATION

During its February 24, 2021, meeting, the Committee approved using the existing Steering Committee to assist in discussions of a post-pandemic world in the SUS. The Steering Committee, which consists of six provosts and a member of the Chancellor's staff as a non-voting member, has existed since 2015 when it was created to provide guidance in the implementation of the 2025 Strategic Plan for Online Education.

During its meetings in 2021, the IOC was presented with summaries of discussions held by the Steering Committee with leaders in academic and academic support units; student support services; medical and public health schools; research; administrative services; continuing education; and cooperative extension services. The discussions focused on lessons learned, challenges, opportunities, best practices, and recommendations.

At its meeting today, FAU Provost Bret Danilowicz, the Steering Committee's chair, will present the Steering Committee's report and recommendations.
