The background of the entire graphic is a collage of various athletes in action. At the top left, a football player in a gold helmet and jersey is shown from the chest up, holding a football. To his right are three women, likely volleyball players, wearing jerseys with "FAMU" and "MEAC" logos. Below the football player is a baseball player in a white jersey with "PITTLERS" and the number "9" on it. In the bottom left, a female track athlete is running, wearing a jersey with "FAMU" and the number "2". In the bottom center, a male basketball player in a white jersey with "FAMU" and the number "20" is dribbling a basketball. To his right is another female track athlete running, wearing a jersey with "FAMU" and the number "7". The background has a pattern of diagonal lines radiating from the center.
