Section 1. General Purpose

The Corporation is organized under The Florida Not for Profit Corporation Act, Fla. Stat. § 617.01011, et seq. (the “Law”), shall be a not for profit, nonsectarian organization formed and operated exclusively for charitable and educational purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code (“Code”). In furtherance of the foregoing, the Corporation may act as an accrediting agency for ~~state~~ public colleges and universities, receive bequests of property and funds for scientific, educational and charitable purposes, all for the advancement of the Founding University Systems, ~~as defined in Article VI~~, and their objectives; and to that end to take and hold, for any of said purposes, funds and property of all kinds, subject only to any limitations or conditions imposed by law or in the instrument under which received; to buy, sell, lease, convey and dispose of any such property and to invest and reinvest any proceeds and other funds, and to deal with and expend the principal and income for any of said purposes; and, in general, to exercise any, and all powers which a not for profit corporation organized under the laws of Florida for the foregoing purposes can be authorized to exercise.

No part of the net earnings of the Corporation shall inure to the benefit of, or be distributable to its members, trustees, officers, or other private persons, except that the Corporation shall be authorized and empowered to pay reasonable compensation for services rendered and to make payments and distributions in furtherance of the purposes set forth in Article III. No substantial part of the activities of the Corporation shall be the carrying on of propaganda, or otherwise attempting to influence legislation, and the Corporation shall not participate in, or intervene in (including the publishing or distribution of statements) any political campaign on behalf of or in opposition to any candidate for public office. Notwithstanding any other provision of these articles, the Corporation shall not carry on any other activities not permitted to be carried on (a) by a corporation exempt from federal income tax under section 501(c)(3) of the Code, or (b) by a corporation, contributions to which are deductible under section 170(c)(2) of the Code.

During any period that the Corporation may be found to be a private foundation, as defined by Section 509(a) of the Code, the Corporation shall: (1) distribute its income for each taxable year at such time and in such manner as not to become subject to the tax on undistributed income imposed by Section 4942(a) of the Code; (2) not engage or be involved in any act of self-dealing, as defined in Section 4941(d) of the Code, so as to give rise to any liability for the tax imposed by Section 4941(a) of the Code; (3) not retain any excess business holdings as defined in Section 4943(c) of the Code, so as to give rise to any liability for the tax imposed by Section 4943(a) of the Code; (4) not make any investments which would jeopardize the carrying out of any of its exempt purposes, within the meaning of Section 4944 of the Code, so as to give rise to any liability for the tax imposed by Section 4944(a) of the Code; and (5) not make any taxable expenditures, as defined in Section 4945(d) of the Code, so as to give rise to any liability imposed by Section 4945(a) of the Code.

Section 2. Specific Purpose.

The specific purpose of the Corporation is to advance the quality and improvement of higher education by accrediting and pre-accrediting ~~state~~-public colleges and universities that are incorporated, chartered, licensed or authorized in the United States. The Corporation shall serve as an institutional accrediting agency for ~~state~~-public colleges and universities that award associates, bachelors or higher degrees. The Corporation may also engage in any activities that are reasonably related to or in furtherance of its stated charitable and educational purposes.
