

Empowering Communities To Help Limited-Income Students Know How To Go

ENLACE Florida is currently in transition to become the Florida College Access Network

- Empower communities and organizations to work alongside our schools in the areas of college-readiness, access, and success.
 - Identify and promote effective practices that are scalable and sustainable that lead to greater college completion rates
 - Build consensus and public will to advocate for policies that need to be adopted in order for Florida to significantly increase college completion rates
